Narrator:

A new day is dawning for our communities and businesses, our families and our futures. It's a pivotal time when financial wellness is as important as ever.

We're optimistic about the opportunities to address today's financial priorities and help keep longer term goals on track. And we're here to help with guidance, tools and resources.

Financial Life Benefits™ is our powerful new solution to help meet employees' broad financial needs, from day to day banking through Bank of America, to investing for retirement with Merrill. It's a more complete experience that helps employees make the most of their benefits with holistic guidance and education to help them throughout their financial journeys.

And employees can securely and seamlessly access their Financial Life Benefits through one Bank of America app, making it easier to manage their full financial lives.

Smart technology serves up relevant insights that are personalized and actionable. This high-tech, high-touch experience can go a long way to help strengthen employee engagement and make it easier for them to get on track toward healthier financial lives.

Employees get clarity about where they are financially with our Financial Wellness Tracker. This innovative online experience provides employees with an individual financial wellness score and suggested action plan to help employees take positive strides toward financial wellness. And we continue to identify more opportunities to deliver education and guidance to your employees in more meaningful ways.

From online access to educational tools and resources, to virtual consultations and workshops, we take a holistic approach that considers employees' full financial picture.

Financial Life Benefits is redefining employee benefits, raising the bar on the value your company can offer.

Elevate your benefits.
Give employees what they need.
The power to believe in tomorrow.
